Fee scope

The service fee covers administrative and consultancy work such as document review, checklist preparation, application form assistance, appointment guidance, communication, and file organization. Once Kanz Visa starts the service, this fee is non-refundable because staff time and work product have been allocated to the case.

Important: Kanz Visa cannot guarantee a visa, admission, appointment date, employer sponsorship, licensure, government decision, or processing time. Government, school, testing, courier, translation, and third-party charges are separate from Kanz Visa fees unless written otherwise.

Applicant acknowledgements

Check	Applicant acknowledgement
☐	I understand the service fee is non-refundable once Kanz Visa begins preparing forms, reviewing documents, providing appointment support, communicating, or performing other work on my case.
☐	I understand government, embassy, USCIS, SEVIS, school, testing, courier, translation, and third-party fees are separate and may also be non-refundable under their own rules.
☐	I understand a refusal, delay, administrative processing, appointment cancellation, document request, or change in government rules does not make the Kanz Visa service fee refundable.
☐	I understand I must provide complete, accurate, and timely information and documents for my application file.
☐	I understand Kanz Visa provides preparation support only and final decisions are made by the relevant government, school, employer, board, or testing authority.
